

The Gerry Brannigan Memorial Randonne

Sunday 29th April 2007 (115 km)

In memory and honour of fellow club member Gerry Brannigan who died in tragic circumstances last September, Orwell Wheelers are running the inaugural Gerry Brannigan Randonne on Sunday 29th April. Starting from the Scout Den in Ballinteer the route and distance are aimed at providing everybody thinking of doing the Wicklow 200 with an ideal training spin.

The cost of entering on the day is only €15.

Details:

- 8:30 a.m. riders sign in at the Scout Den in Ballinteer. The den is behind the church in Ballinteer.
- Riders will then take the following route:
 - Lamb Doyles to Stepside and Enniskerry
 - Up the back road to Glencree
 - Left at the top of Glencree and on up to the top of Sally Gap
 - Down the long winding mountain road down past Glenmacnass waterfall to Laragh.
 - Over the Vale of Clara to Rathdrum
 - Rathdrum to Moneystown and then via Tomriland Cross Roads to Roundwood.
 - Roundwood up over the shoulder of Djouce mountain to Enniskerry
 - From Enniskerry back via Stepside to Lamb Doyles and the finish at the Scout Den.
 - There will be a big mug of coffee and some snacks at the finish and a pat on the back for a job well done.

The route as you can see takes in the first and last sections of the Wicklow 200 so will be ideal preparation for anybody doing either the 100 or 200 routes in June.
